Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 293 pages. On Minnesotas bluff overlooking the serene Mississippi River valley and Lake Pepins placid waters, Leaner Institutes fenced-in compound offered a sanctuary of security and peace for its workers. Until one idyllic June afternoon when something was released inside the perimeter. Then people began to disappear. Within an hour, the compound felt more like an apocalyptic internment camp. It was up to Tammara and Richard to rally the few survivors, and find a way of stopping it, before it escaped the compound to unleash devastation across the rest of the country. But to kill it, they had to understand what it was. Absorbed is a fast-paced adventure filled with the treat of death. Yet, at the same time, the eight survivors are faced with their own revelations about themselves, their relationships with each other and with a ravenous entity.
