Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Affectionate Address to the Clergy on the Theological Writings of Emanuel Swedenborg: Tract No; 18, for the New Church in the United States He was gifted with an active and vigorous mind, a warm heart, and a deep and ardent love of knowledge; and often, while pursuing his studies at the university, he had the wisdom to reflect, that both the affection of science, and the genuine delights of friendship, descend from above. On one occasion, he says, He recollects being so powerfully struck with this sentiment, that he was compelled to fall down on his knees before the Father of Mercies, in devout adoration of his divine bounty; first, for having communicated to His children the love of knowledge, and for opening to their view that new world of wonders which knowledge discovers; and, secondly, for having inspired the delights of disinterested friendship, which appeared to him, at that time, the purest and highest joys which the human mind is capable of tasting. In 1766, after having completed the usual term of five years...
