THE THINGS WE ARDENTLY WISH FOR IN THIS LIFE, EITHER NEVER COME TO FASS, OR IF THEY SO IT IS TOO LATE. HENCE, BETTER LATE THAN NEVER. The whole of the morning passed off as quietly as any well wisher to our cause could desire. Towards twelve oclock it was our decision that licence-hunting was over, for the day any how, since no digger recollected a search for licence taking place on a Saturday afternoon. Our talk was of the coming meeting of the reform league at two oclock on Sunday, at the Adelphi, as announced at the monster meeting on Wednesday. The impression was almost general, that Charley would soon dismiss the hated brood of our commissioners, and things would then be all right. Off to get a bite, was the pass-word. I assert as a matter of fact, and a living eye-witness,...
