Being arrived at Antioch, they assembled the to the end. church, ancj prefented the-decretal epistle to them, in the presence of the whole congregation: which when they had read, the Gentile converts rejoiced greatly to find themselves discharged from the burden of the law, and confirmed in their Christian liberty, by an apostolic decree. While they were in Antioch, Judas and Silas were not idle; but being both men of excellent gifts in the interpretation of the Scriptures, they employed their time in confirming believers in the truth of Christianity; and after a short stay, were, with all kindness and civility dismissed by the church, in order to return to Jerusalem. But Silas, for some reasons, was unwilling to depart so soon, and chose rather to tarry with Paul and Birnabas, who, with several others of their fraternity, employed themselves in instructing those who had already received the Christian faith, and in preaching it to others, who had not yet embraced it, in this great and populous city....
