Suiting the action to the word, the Club was formed, and baptized the Old Inter Ocean Boys Club, and officers elected as follows: George B. Armstrong, President. W. J. Irvin, Treasurer. Thomas O. Thompson, Secretary. Thomas C. MacMillan, Chairman Entertainment Committee. It was at once decided that the first official act of the Club should take the shape of a banquet to our former chief, William Penn Nixon, a man whom we all revere with a tenderness that is shown toward an honored parent, for Mr. Nixon was, indeed, the father and guiding...
