Brand New Book  Print on Demand .By The People In the beginning, there was an offhand comment. Before it was done, it would bring down a President. In the beginning, there was a hypothetical theory advanced by a minor economics professor. In the end it would kill not only him but half the large mammals in the world. And in the beginning, there was a great stone divide in the city of Berlin, and its fall would have ramifications unimagined by those who knew its secrets. Three strands of a spider s web, three unrelated snapshots in time, and all tied together by one feckless ex-Secret Service agent and his sweet little old aunt, Bulldog Bessie. Chuck Williams, an up-and-coming member of the First Lady s Secret Service detail, was a good agent, who on an unfortunate night made one of those career busting mistakes. Demoted back into the Customs Service, he began a journey which would eventually involve not only the taking down of the administration, but also uncover the biggest ecological disaster the world had ever seen, the attempted wholesale slaughter of every ivory producing mammal on the planet. Chuck would find many allies along his trek; stumble onto them might be a better way of putting it, not the least of which was the crazy old aunt who lived down in Baja in a couple of old converted railroad freight cars, with a geodesic dome on top. As he had learned, his dear old auntie had, unbeknownst to the rest of the family, been working for the OSS/CIA since old Wild Bill himself had run things. Technically retired, she and her deceased and beloved husband Herbert had lived it all to...
