Excerpt: .truths to be self-evident, --that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. THE FLAG IN THE SCHOOL SINCE the Flag is floating above the school-houses all over the land, and in Porto Rico, Hawaii, the Philippines and other faroff isles of the sea, it is right and proper that there should be exercises inside the school-houses. The Woman s Relief Corps first introduced the flag salute into the public schools, in 1886, for the sake of giving many little foreigners in New York City their first lessons in loyalty to the Flag of the country of their parents adoption. Now certain daily exercises are repeated in the broken accents of the dusky peoples of distant lands lately taken under the protection of the United...
