Excerpt: . . . the Whole world in conformity with your aestheticisms. . . a vain dream, and if realised it would result in an impossible world. A wife and children are the basis of existence, and it is folly to cry out because an appeal to such interests as these meet with response. . . it will be so till the end of time. And. these great interests that are to continue to the end of time began two years ago, when your pictures were not praised in the Figaro as much as you thought they should be. Marriage--what an abomination I Love--yes, but not marriage. Love cannot exist in marriage, because love is an ideal; that is to say, something not quite understood--transparencies, colour, light, a sense of the unreal. But a wife--you know all about her----who her father was, who her mother was, what she...

Reviews

These kinds of book is every thing and helped me hunting forward plus more. It is probably the most remarkable book we have read through. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
