By Jeanette Yep, Paul Tokunaga, Greg Jao

InterVarsity Press, United Kingdom, 1998. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Go to the right school. Become a doctor or a lawyer. Marry a nice Asian. These are some of the hopes of our Asian parents. Knowing that our parents have sacrificed for us, we want to honor their wishes. But we also want to serve Jesus, and sometimes that can seem to conflict with family expectations. Discovering our Asian identity in the midst of Western culture means learning to bridge these and other conflicting values. We need wise counsel on our parents ways of loving us vocations that show respect for our parents and allow us to serve God the model minority myth and performance pressures marriage, singleness, and being male and female racial reconciliations spirituality and church experiences unique gifts Asians bring to Western culture This book, written by a team of Asian American student ministry workers who have been there, can serve as our guide on a difficult journey. The authors represent a variety of perspectives, including the immigrant experience of a Korean man, a third-generation Japanese-American's understanding of his parents' experience in the internment camps during World War II, and a Chinese American...
